My dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 11th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and am engaged in the same work. I hope to hear from you soon.

I am very much interested in the progress of the cause and hope to see many more converts to the true faith.

I am, dear Mother, ever your affectionate son,
John Smith

My dear
I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines
will find you the same.

I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to get out for a walk. I am very anxious to hear from you again.

I am sure you will be able to do so. I am very anxious to hear from you again. I am very anxious to hear from you again.

I am sure you will be able to do so. I am

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that I have received your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the purchase of a house in the parish of St. Martin, and I am happy to say that I have been successful in procuring a very desirable one for you.

The house is situated in a very healthy and airy part of the parish, and is well adapted for the purpose of a residence. It is built of brick and has a garden of about half an acre. The price is £1200, and I have no objection to your purchasing it on a mortgage of £800, if you think proper.
